WHAT TO WATCH

Wipeout

NBN, 7.30pm

It seems obstacle course shows are cool again. This it's a Knockout-style import from the US sees 24 hopefuls tackle a course featuring challenges such as high-speed treadmills, giant bouncing balls and a wall from which arms pop out and throw punches. Hosted by John Anderson, John Henson and Jill Wagner (pictured).

Walk Like A Man

SBS, 7.30pm

This enjoyable doco tells the story the Bingham Cup tournament, which is a competition involving the world's best homosexual rugby teams. It was named after gay rugby player Mark Bingham, who perished aboard United Airlines Flight 93, on September 11, 2001. Former rugby league star-turned-actor Ian Roberts, the first Australian footballer to publicly come out, narrates as the San Francisco Fog and the Sydney Convicts compete for the 2006 trophy.
