WALK LIKE A MAN SBS, 8pm

THIS documentary explains the history of the Bingham Cup – an international gay rugby union tournament.

It features players (pictured) from San Francisco Fog and the Sydney Convicts, as the top teams prepare to compete for the 2006 Bingham Cup in New York City.

The cup had its beginnings on September 11, 2001, when Mark Bingham, a gay rugby player, bravely stormed the cockpit of Flight 93 to help prevent the hijackers from turning the aircraft into a weapon.

To honour Bingham's memory, San Francisco Fog launched this biennial rugby tournament.

FAMILY FORTUNES ABC1, 8pm

IN this second instalment of this entertaining and insightful series, viewers learn more about the Answorth family.

It follows how "pokie king" Len Answorth made his fortune creating and selling pokies or slot machines, and how illness forced him to sort out his estate.

But blood isn't always thicker than water for Len. When one of his sons breached an inheritance contract, Len sued him to teach him a lesson.

HOW TO HAVE SEX AFTER MARRIAGE

NBN, 10.30pm
NOW that I have your attention, this series has been the subject of weekly watercooler conversations since it first aired.

Couples contemplate their dull sex lives, and "sexperts" breeze in to save the day.
